MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Proposed [REDACTED] . 25X1A5a1

[REDACTED] called about noon to say that [REDACTED] had received the green light from his superiors in [REDACTED] to offer to continue to support the study of input-output relations in the Soviet economy being conducted under the supervision of [REDACTED]. This project has been supported by the [REDACTED] under contract with the U. S. Army. ORO support is being withdrawn as of July 1, 1951.

[REDACTED] reported that [REDACTED] wanted to check with me before making a proposal to [REDACTED] contract in order to make sure that this would fit in with any plans O/RR has.

I told [REDACTED] I was seeing [REDACTED] next week and would phone him after my survey of the situation at [REDACTED]. In the meantime my immediate and informal reaction was that if [REDACTED] group was doing good work it should be held together, and if [REDACTED] was ready to support it financially this would be a logical way to have support provided.
